LAWN TENNIS, GOLFHAROLD KAY EXPECTED TO CARRY CRIMSON TO VICTORY
AGAINST COLORADO AGGIES

The University of Utah football eleven will leave today for Fort Collins, where they will meet the Colorado Aggies, Saturday, in what promises to be one of the hardest fought games of the conference. The team should arrive at Fort Collins early Friday afternoon, and Coach Fitzpatrick will, no doubt, put the players through a light workout as soon as they arrive, in order to take the kinks out of their muscles after the long ride.

The players were put through a light scrimmage last evening, and with only a few minor injuries still hanging over from the Colorado college affair the entire squad is in good condition and will enter the fray with the Colorado Farmers in first-class shape.

The Utah mentor is not taking the coming affair at all lightly, and realizes that Utah is up against the toughest aggregation on his schedule this season. The manner in which the Aggies trounced the University of Colorado would indicate that they are in a class by themselves if the university ranks at all favorably with the remaining teams of the conference.

Tommy has not as yet given out any definite announcement as to the eight men who will take the trip, and those who do travel to Fort Collins will have to pack up on their way to the depot this morning. A large football rally was held on the hill yesterday and a great send-off was accorded the team. Speeches by the coach and several members of the squad, as well as two or three notable orators around the campus, served to enliven the crowd, and the rally was a huge success. The student body is firmly behind the team this year, and the big red and white-hooped athletes are out to be deserving of such support.

Eighteen men will be picked from the following squad to make the trip: Peterson, Prouse, Reeves and Jensen, ends; Gilmer, Swan and Schafsky, tackles; Howells and Riches, guards; Silver and Hancock, center; Thorum, lineman; Romney and Gray, quarterback; Wareing, Kay and Ure, half-backs; Gardner and Stevenson, full-backs.

Harold Kay, former Ogdan high school athletic star, one of the greatest halfbacks ever developed in the Rocky mountain conference and entirely responsible for the Utah victory over Colorado college last week, is expected to carry the crimson over the goal line at Fort Collins for victory. Kay is one of the shiftest players ever seen in a "U" uniform and his playing last Saturday places him in a class with the Romneys, Richardsons and other Ogdan athletic stars.

UTAH AGGIES HAVE HARD GAME SCHEDULED DURING
WEEK WITH MONTANA STATE

LOGAN, Oct. 16.—Coach "Dick" Romney of the Utah Aggie "Big Blue team" is perfectly justified in having an anxious bosom when he rummages at the coming game with the University of Montana next Saturday, for, according to all advance dope that has been trickling into the Aggie base of operations, the M. U. eleven is coming to Logan primed for battle and with blood in their eyes in considerable quantities. Foot ball bugs will remember that the Aggies succeeded in defeating the Montana bunch in the last game played between the two teams in 1917, therefore witness the said wild rage of the defeated.

Montana has good reason for her hopes for victory because of the following facts: "Lefty" Driscoll, quarterback and one of the fastest players that has ever played on a western eleven; "Steve" Dahlberg, a line-man of much ability and a mainstay of former teams of Coach Bierman; "Jimmie" Harris, "Steve" Sullivan, Donahue, Lamb, Leahy and Knight, who are all back in the mole skins for the M. U. These men have all had considerable football experience and have all played under Coach Bierman and are conversant with the methods of play.

In addition to the above men the northern school also is fortunate in having on its roster such men as Frank Lewis, a player of considerable speed and feared throughout the west; Jim Murphy, who hails from the University of Minnesota; Jack Layton, who has been elected captain of the team at Montana, and who has played center of the team for three years, and Van Horn. Three men of slightly less experience, but of considerable pigskin knowledge, are Gus Schreck, Bill Watters, Kirchner and Fitzgerald.

To meet this formidable array the Aggies are busy every night until darkness appears perfecting an already greatly advanced style of football for this early in the season, and by Saturday they will be ready for the best that Montana can send against them in the form of a pigskin team.

To match the famed "Lefty" Driscoll the Aggies have Luke Falck, a player who bids fair to develop into one of the best quarters ever developed in the west. He showed his ability in the game with the Idaho Tech last Saturday, when he ran for a touch-down from the kick-off several times. Glen Dee and Perce Hansen are also fleet of foot to the ninth degree and should make any aspiring Montanan stretch himself to bring him to the earth. At fullback the team has none other than "Frog" McDonald, "the living catapult," who hits the line like five tons of brick. Coach Romney is also making a promising full out of Joe Maughan, a former player of the 145th Field Artillery, and a boy of much speed and weight—about one hundred and eighty. Then there are Nagle, a former player of the fresh team. Jarvis alternates end and full-back and is too well known to Utah fans to need any explanatory notes.

The line has been strengthened by the addition of Del Gardner, one of the 1917 championship team, an end who will go a long way in bolstering up the vacancy left by the ineligibility of Andy Mohr. Howard McDonald at guard, all-state guard of the Granite high school team, is showing up brilliantly. In the game last Saturday he played consistently and hard, breaking up the plays of the opposition almost before they were formed. Captain Douglas ("Bistol") Cannon at center is playing the best football of his life and is "rarin" to team them up!

Lester Jarvis at end is taking the forward passes out of the air in a manner that brings chorles of satisfaction from the "loyal students," who are out nightly to give the boys the once over. The other boys in the line are showing up with the old spirit and the game should result in a victory for the "Big Blue team" when they come on the field Saturday.

Although Montana is coming out strong with the spirit of win, Coach Romney is confident of a victory because of the showing that his charges are making at their nightly practices. A good spirit exists in the eleven and every one of the team is imbued with the eagerness to make the 1919 season the equal of 1917.

RESPONSIBILITY FOR WAR.

BERLIN, Oct. 15.—(Via Copenhagen.)—The tribunal of state, set up by the government at general request to investigate the question of the responsibility for the war and charges against leading statesmen and military leaders alleged to have been criminally for their part in bringing it on unnecessarily, will open its settings this week.

LIMA PAPERS AGAIN ISSUED. LIMA, Peru, Wednesday, Oct. 15.—Regular editions of the Lima newspapers were issued today after a nine days' suspension of publication owing to a strike of typographers. Settlement of the strike was on the basis of a 30 per cent increase in wages.

A country road,
A farmhouse near,
A fishing party,
Too much nearbeer,
They're homeward bound
In a big machine,
They're hungry too,
And no "long green,"
A wayward hen,
Struts in the road,
Then races away
From the boisterous load.

Both Coaches McIntyre and Olsen made frequent changes in the line-ups. The Saints revealed a stubborn defense at times during the four quarters and made the going for the Infant stars a little slower than was anticipated.

The yearling backfield showed its class, and the big line opened up wide holes consistently. The L. D. S. offense made little headway against the experienced college tacklers.

Coach Olsen of the Saints is a firm believer in teaching his men the game by putting them under fire as much as possible. They registered their first win of the season Tuesday, when they defeated the scrappy Bryant Junior High team, 20-0. A league battle with Jordan is on the card for Friday.

VERNON WALLOPS
ST. PAUL STARS
IN FAST CONTEST

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 16.—Bunched hits in the first and second innings gave Vernon a victory over St. Paul in the seventh game of the western minor league championship series, 6 to 2. The contest had technically been awarded to the visitors before the game was called, due to a controversy over a substitute player—Fournier of the Angels—in the Tigers' line-up, but the dispute was later adjusted and the game was played.

Vernon opened by scoring three runs from four hits and an error, and knocked Pitches Williams and Merritt off the slab in the first frame.

The Tigers followed with two tallies in the second inning and scored again in the eighth.

The visitors took their two runs in the fourth inning on doubles by Hyatt and McDonald and errors by Mitchell and Beck.

The victory gives the Tigers four of the seven games played. It requires five to win the minor league title.

Benny Leonard Is Again Victorious

DETROIT, Oct. 15.—Benny Leonard, lightweight champion, easily outfought Phil Bloom in a ten-round no-decision bout here tonight, in the opinion of newspaper men. Apparently Leonard all but stopped his opponent in three of the rounds. It was the champion's final go before his title match with Johnny Dundee at Hartford, October 27.

Pal Moore of Memphis, was given the newspaper decision over Jabez White of Albany at the end of ten rounds of fast boxing.

Ernie Johnson Will

Probably Be 1920
Baseball Skipper

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Oct. 16.—The weather cock at the top of the pole on the Baseball Rialto—that famous cauldron of off-season dope—turned yesterday. When last observed last evening it was pointing almost directly at Ernie Johnson, the Bees' peppy shortstop. If it swings just a trifle more it will tag Ernie with the Salt Lake club managership.

There was report—a rumor, maybe—along the aforesaid Rialto that the terms insisted upon by Eddie Herr, skipper of the 1919 Bees, for a re-engagement were of such gigantic proportions that the club heads almost expired of the shock. Besides which, there were several with a craving for a little more jazz in the old game than there has been.

All efforts to extract some official juice from President Lane naturally proved futile. Bill allowed that nothing had been settled, but admitted that it was going to be settled pretty soon, so that the 1920 skipper can decide what material he needs and start getting it at once.

If the management finally picks Ernie, there is little question that the fans will enthusiastically approve.

Knockouts Feature

Weekly Boxing Card
At Salt Lake City

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 16.—Abie, the fighting "Yid," won from George Solis in the main event at Hardy Downing's Manhattan club last night. The "Yid" has increased his belt measure since last winter. He has also increased his punch.

The blow that put the bell on Solis was one to the jaw. It seemed to be a favorite one for the ironworker, and one that Solis did not seem to be able to block. Solis did not show the speed he had last year. His blows lacked the punch.

The knockout came at the onset of the sixth round. The round opened with Solis forcing the "Yid" to the corner for a glancing blow to the jaw. "Yid" landed on the jaw and the count started. When Downing raised his hand the second time Solis motioned to him that he was through. Solis said he thought his jaw was broken, but an examination disproved the belief.

The four-round bouts leading up to the main event were of the usual knock 'em out type. Three of the features were ended over the poppy route. Probably the speediest fight of the evening came in the tilt between Jay Solomon and Greek George. Both of the men are hard hitters, but Solomon proved to be able to stand the pace better than the Greek. Solomon got the medal. The first two rounds clearly belonged to the gentleman from overseas.

The show started with the usual fight between the meal ticket knockers. It was a three-round affair full of awkward swings and many misses. If blood made fights the one between Jackson and Bates would have

Weber Meets B. Y. C.
Gridders Tomorrow

Coach Malcolm Watson's Weber gridders will clash with the fast B. Y. C. grid stars at Lorin Farr park tomorrow in the third game of the season for the local team. The game is called for 3:30 o'clock.

The local team is in excellent condition and Coach Watson expects his men to put up a stubborn game against the visitors. Thus far this season the local team have established a good record, despite the fact that this is their first year. In the game against the American Legion players Tuesday they were defeated, but only after a real battle.

It is expected that a large crowd of fans will be on hand to root for the local team. B. Y. C. also is expected to have a number of fans present.

Team Meet Friday

The Southern Pacific soccer team will hold a business meeting at the Ogdan Billiard hall Friday evening at 8 o'clock. All members of the organization are requested to be present. All interested in the game are also invited to attend. Future details for the game will be discussed and it is requested that all be present.

Utah Freshmen Win
From L. D. S. Stars

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Oct. 16.—Showing great improvement over their work of a week ago, the L. D. S. football team held the formidable U freshmen eleven to a 67-0 score in their practice game on Cummings field last evening.

Both Coaches McIntyre and Olsen made frequent changes in the line-ups. The Saints revealed a stubborn defense at times during the four quarters and made the going for the Infant stars a little slower than was anticipated.

The yearling backfield showed its class, and the big line opened up wide holes consistently. The L. D. S. offense made little headway against the experienced college tacklers.
